Stella Chang is a young, accomplished attorney who brings great energy, focus, and dedication to the practice of law. She graduated with degrees from two of the country's leading universities: Undergraduate degrees from Cornell University in Economics and Sociology and a Juris Doctorate degree from the University of California at Berkeley School of Law.

While in law school, she was a member of the Berkeley Technology and Law Journal and Committee Chair of the Consumer Advocacy and Protection Society. She has also worked as a law clerk on an extern basis for the First Appellate District of the California Court of Appeal. She became a legal fellow at Wikimedia Foundation where she concentrated on intellectual property, media, and international privacy laws.

Ms. Chang's practice focuses on business, real estate and intellectual property litigation and transactions. Pragmatic and assiduous, Ms. Chang is dedicated to developing strategic solutions for the clients' needs and specializes in finding a simpler, understandable approach to complicated matters.

Ms. Chang is an accomplished musician. She was an expert violinist at a very young age and later began playing the oboe. She speaks both Mandarin and Shanghainese. Her hobbies include tennis, kickboxing, and backpacking.
